Dear Harold and Lillian,

Dallas was particularly crazy for me this year because I was selling books at both the Lancer and COPA conferences. However, I was lucky enough to catch the Lancer Awards and see your marvelous video.

I don't have any plagues to send — only my best wishes and prayers.

All the best,

Andy

P.S. I have already received a letter from the Portugese woman interested in your work. What marvelous people you bring into my life.

Happy to learn
of your success
And wish you
Worlds of happiness.
